$48,432 - $80,669	Village of Scotia (2021-2022)

Last Date for Filing: August 2, 2021

Date of Examination: September 18, 2021

Residency Requirement: Candidates must be legal residents of Schenectady, Albany, Schoharie, Montgomery or Saratoga County for at least one month immediately preceding the date of the examination. Preference in certification for appointment may be given to successful candidates who have been residents of the municipality in which appointment is to be made for at least one month immediately preceding the date of certification and at the time of appointment.

Duties: This position involves responsibility for the enforcement of laws and ordinances and the protection of lives and property in an assigned area during a specified shift. The duties consist primarily of routine patrol tasks, assisting in investigation of criminal offenses, and the apprehension of criminals. Direct supervision is received from a higher-ranking officer. However, there is considerable independent responsibility for the exercise of sound judgment in emergencies. Performs related work as required.

Minimum Qualifications: (on the date of the written test)

Graduation from high school or possession of a high school equivalency diploma issued by a state education authority, or possession of a United States Armed Forces GED certificate, or possession of a comparable diploma as described in Section 58 of the New York State Civil Service Law AND successful completion of 30 credit hours at a regionally accredited or New York State registered college or university.

A college transcript MUST accompany the application for examination or your application will be disapproved! The transcript may be unofficial, but it must clearly show your name, the college name and the amount of credits awarded.

As no refunds will be made of the exam fee, you are urged to compare your qualifications carefully with the requirements for admission stated in the "minimum qualifications" section of the examination announcement, and file only for those examinations for which you are clearly qualified. The education and experience (including the percentage of time spent personally performing the duties of each employment) you indicate on the application will be verified and compared to the "minimum qualifications" for the position. Omissions or vagueness will not be interpreted in your favor.

Tolerance Policy:

Candidates who do not possess the minimum post-secondary educational qualifications as of the date of the examination, but who are currently enrolled in their last semester leading to possession of such qualifications, may be admitted to the exam conditionally, with final approval for their qualifications being granted only upon submission of their college transcript within sixty (60) days of the date of the examination.

The tolerance will extend only to the issue of completing the minimum post-secondary educational qualifications. All other minimum qualifications must be met on or before the date of the exam.

To be approved on a conditional basis, the candidate must provide the Schenectady County Civil Service Commission, at the time of application, a college transcript showing their current status and pending courses needed to complete the education qualifications. Failure to do so will result in application disapproval.

Failure of the candidate to submit the final college transcript showing completion of the minimum post-secondary educational qualifications within said sixty (60) day period shall disqualify the candidate. For this examination, the sixty (60) day period is on/or before November 17, 2021.

Note: An unofficial transcript will be accepted when filing for an examination, but an official transcript may be required at time of interview or appointment.

Special Requirements:

AGE: Candidates must be at least 19 years of age on or before September 18, 2021 to be admitted to the written test. Eligibility for appointment as a Police Officer begins when the candidate reaches age 20.

Candidates who reach their 35th birthday on or before the date of the written examination are not qualified except as follows: *candidates may have a period of military duty or terminal leave up to six years, as defined in section 243 (10-a) of the Military Law, deducted from their age for the purpose of meeting the age requirement.

*Section 58.1(a) requires that applicants not be "more than thirty-five years of age as of the date when the applicant takes the written examination..." candidates who may be impacted by the maximum age requirement and who are requesting an alternate test date (for Active Military Duty, Sabbath observance or for an alternate test date situation which meets the conditions of the agency's alternate test date policy) are advised to contact Schenectady County Civil Service to discuss their request.

!! DATE OF BIRTH MUST BE ON APPLICATION !!

Driver's License: Candidates must possess a valid New York State operator's license at time of appointment and maintain such license throughout the tenure of employment.

Other Special Requirements: Candidates must be able to read, write and fluently converse in the Spanish Language.

Background Investigation and Additional Screenings:

Investigative Screening: As stated in Section 58 of the Civil Service Law, there will be a background investigation conducted in accordance with the standards of the municipal police training council (MPTC). Derogatory information will be evaluated and may result in disqualification. All convictions must be reported. Conviction of a felony or misdemeanor, or any falsified or omitted information, may bar appointment or result in removal after appointment, depending upon the relationship of the violation or omission to the duties of the position.

Psychological Evaluation: As stated in Section 58 of the Civil Service Law, you will be required to participate in a psychological evaluation to determine your fitness to perform the essential duties of the position prior to appointment. Failure to meet the standards may result in your offer of employment being rescinded or in your disqualification. An eligible will be called for a psychological assessment as needed to fill existing and anticipated vacancies.

Drug testing is included in the required medical exam. Applicants may be required to submit the necessary fees for the fingerprinting processing etc...

Candidates may be required to submit a polygraph test as a condition of employment.

Subjects of Examination:

- (1) A weighted multiple choice written test; and
- (2) A qualifying Spanish language oral proficiency test

Subject of Examination:

There will be a written test and a qualifying Spanish language oral proficiency test which you must pass in order to be considered for appointment. Only your score on the written test will be considered when computing your final score. In addition, candidates must meet the physical fitness and medical standards prescribed by the Municipal Police Training Council. Candidates passing the written portion of the examination will have their names placed on the eligible list but will be required to pass the language oral test and the qualifying physical-agility before they can be certified for permanent appointment. These tests will be given as the needs of the service require. Candidates who pass the qualifying physical fitness test and who are given a conditional offer of employment will be scheduled to take the required medical examination.

Subjects of Examination: A written test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in the following areas:

Situational Judgment

These questions test for the ability to identify appropriate and effective responses to work-related challenges. You will be presented with scenarios that reflect the types of challenges one could encounter in a work environment. Each scenario will be followed by several responses to the scenario. You must rate the effectiveness of each response.

Language Fluency

These questions test for the ability to read, understand, and present a clear and accurate summary of information. For some questions, you will be given a brief reading passage followed by four statements, each summarizing the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given several sentences, one of which contains a spelling, grammatical, or punctuation error. You must then select the line that contains the error.

Information Ordering and Language Sequencing

These questions test for the ability to properly identify the sequence or order of events, or to organize information to fit a timeline. You will be given a brief reading passage followed by one or more questions. You must identify the proper sequence of events in order to answer one or more questions.

Problem Sensitivity and Reasoning

These questions test for the ability to apply information and to identify a problem or potential problem. For some questions, you will be given information in the form of policies, rules, regulations, or laws, which will be followed by a situation. You must then identify the problem and apply the information to select the best course of action to take. For other questions, you will be given a scenario and mock witness statements. You must use this information to answer one or more questions about the scenario.

Selective Attention

These questions test for the ability to focus on completing a task and to pay attention to important details while performing repetitive and monotonous tasks. You will be presented with a series of letters, symbols, and/or numbers. You must select the choice that contains the series of letters, symbols, and/or number that matches exactly.

Visualization

These questions test for the ability to imagine how something will look when it is moved around or when its parts are changed, moved, or rearranged. You will be presented with an image of a face followed by four images of faces. Each face is disguised or altered in some way. Three of the images have a difference in facial structure or facial features. You must select the choice that contains the image with the identical facial structure and facial features.

Spatial Orientation

These questions test for the ability to understand how to navigate within spaces or how to get from one point to another. You will be provided with a map followed by one or more questions. You must imagine yourself at a certain location and orient yourself to the direction in which you would move to get to another location by the shortest (least distance) route.

Use of Calculators: the use of calculators is prohibited for this examination.

Test guide:

A Guide for the Written Test for Entry-Level Law Enforcement Officer is available at the New York State website: <https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm>. Candidates not having access to a computer or the internet may request copy of the test guide from the municipal civil service office conducting this examination using the contact information found elsewhere on this announcement.

The Qualifying Spanish Language Oral Test is designed to evaluate the candidate's oral proficiency in the Spanish language, at the level appropriate for the title being filled. A level 2 proficiency in the above language is required to pass the qualifying oral proficiency test for this title. This is equivalent to having a working oral language proficiency with understandable, smooth expression at a conversational level of communication.

Waivers: If you have qualified on a Spanish language oral proficiency test, at the required level or a higher level, administered by a local jurisdiction in New York State within the past five years of the date of the written test, the language oral proficiency test may be waived. If you request a waiver, you must submit verifiable evidence of qualifying.

Qualifying Physical Fitness Test

The three elements measured in the qualifying physical fitness test are muscular endurance, absolute strength and cardiovascular capacity. The following is a brief description of the physical fitness test.

Muscular Endurance--The requirement is for a number of bent-leg sit-ups to be performed in one minute.

Push Up--This test measures muscular endurance of the upper body (anterior deltoid, pectoralis major and triceps). The requirement is for a number of full body repetitions that a candidate must complete without breaks.

Cardiovascular Capacity--1.5 mile run; the requirement is for the attainment of a score calculated in minutes and seconds.

The Municipal Police Training Council adopted the Physical Fitness-Screening Test based on the model formulated by the Cooper Institute of Aerobics Research. The minimum passing scores, depending on age and sex, represent the fortieth (40th) percentile of physical fitness as established by the Cooper Institute. Candidates must pass both the written exam and qualifying physical fitness test to be eligible for certification for appointment and a conditional offer of appointment.

Copies of physical fitness and medical standards are available upon request from the Schenectady County Civil Service Office.

A passed agility screening test will be good for a period of one year from the date of the agility test. Candidates will be required to take the agility test again after one year to be eligible for future certification.

Retest for Qualifying Physical Fitness Test: Candidates will be allowed one retest per calendar year.

Applying For Civil Service Examinations In Multiple Jurisdictions When Examinations Are Scheduled On Same Date

If you have applied for any other civil service examinations to be given on the same test date for employment with New York State or any other Local Government Jurisdiction excluding New York City, you must make arrangements to take all the examinations at one test site.

If you have applied for both State and Local government examinations, you must notify our agency, Schenectady County Civil Service, of your intent to take both a state and a local government examination. When taking both a state and a local government examination you will be required to take all your examinations at a state examination center. You must complete a cross-filer form indicating what exams you have applied for and we will notify New York State Civil Service of your intent. You will be advised when and where to report for your examinations.

If you have applied for more than one Local Government Examination with more than one Local Civil Service Agency, you must notify each civil service agency to make arrangements. Schenectady County has a cross-filer form which you must complete. You must make your request for these arrangements no later than two weeks before the date of the examinations. On the cross-filer form you will indicate all exams you have signed up to take and the location you wish to be tested at. If you have questions regarding this examination call (518) 388-4233 or write to Schenectady County Civil Service Commission, 620 State Street, Schenectady, NY 12305.

15. Veterans Credits. The following information and instructions pertain to those candidates who are claiming Veterans Credits. Please note that Veterans Credits will not be granted after the establishment of the eligible list.
- If you are claiming Veterans Credits as either a disabled or non-disabled veteran, you must check the appropriate box on the Application for Examination form and answer all questions accurately and completely. You must also complete the Application for Veterans Credits (obtained in the Schenectady County Civil Service Office or on the Civil Service Department website at www.schenectadycounty.com), and submit the DD-214 Discharge Papers showing that you have an honorable discharge. Failure to do so may result in a denial of your claim for Veterans Credits.
 - If you are claiming credits as a disabled veteran, you must in addition to meeting the requirements as indicated on the Examination Application, be certified by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs as being disabled in the actual performance of duty in any war; that the disability is rated at ten percent or more, and that the disability exists at the time of application for appointment or promotion.
 - All claims for Veterans Credits are tentative and must be verified through inspection of discharge papers and related documents prior to the establishment of the eligible list. All statements you make in support of your claim for Veterans Credits are subject to investigation and substantiation by the Schenectady County Civil Service Commission. In the event of subsequent disclosure of any material misstatement or fraud in your claim, your appointment may be rescinded and you may be disqualified from further appointment on which you have been granted additional credits as a result of such material misstatement or fraud.
 - Any candidate who is currently serving in the armed forces of the United States on a full-time active duty basis, other than active duty for training, may file for Veterans Credits on an examination prior to the list being established.
 - Conditional Veterans Credits. A qualified candidate receiving Conditional Veterans Credits will be restricted from certification using the credits until the appropriate documentary proof indicating that the service was in time of war and that the individual received an honorable discharge or was released under honorable circumstances has been presented. It is the candidate's responsibility to provide such proof to the Schenectady County Civil Service Office in order to have the restriction removed and be certified at a score including the Veterans Credits. Until such documentation is submitted, a candidate may only be certified with the examination score, not including the Veterans Credits.
 - Additional Veterans Credits. Effective January 1, 2014, additional Veterans Credits may be granted to veterans who:
 1. Used Non-Disabled Veterans Credits to obtain a civil service appointment or promotion with New York State or a local government; and
 2. Subsequent to such appointment, are certified by the US Department of Veterans Affairs as having a service connected disability rated at 10% or more.

16. Seniority Credits (Promotional Exams Only). Seniority Credits will be added to an eligible score based on continuous permanent competitive class service in the jurisdiction holding the examination. Service would be credited up to and including the date of examination as follows:

No. of Years	Credits	No. of Years	Credits	No. of Years	Credits
Less than 1 year	0	6 to 10 years	2	16 to 20 years	4
1 to 5 years	1	11 to 15 years	3	21 to 25 years	5

Each additional 5 years will be credited 1 point in accordance with the above schedule.

17. Additional Credits for Eligible Children or Siblings of Firefighters and Police Officers Killed in the Line of Duty. If you are either a child or sibling of Firefighter or Police Officer killed in the line of duty as defined in Civil Service Law Sections 85-a or b (see below), you may be entitled to receive an additional ten points in a competitive examination for original appointment in the same municipality in which the deceased firefighter or police officer had served. A candidate claiming such credit has a minimum of two months from the application deadline to provide the necessary documentation to verify additional credit eligibility. However, no credit may be added after the eligible list has been established. You must contact this office regarding these credits upon submission or your application for examination.

- Civil Service Law Section 85-a. Children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty are eligible for these additional credits.
- Civil Service Law Section 85-b. Siblings of Firefighters and Police Officers killed in line of duty (World Trade Center, September 11, 2001) are eligible for these additional credits. Pursuant to CSL §85-b, “killed in the line of duty” shall mean having died in the performance of duty as the natural and proximate results of participation in the rescue effort that was conducted in response to such attack.
