

SCHEENECTADY COUNTY CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION

SCHEENECTADY COUNTY IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

Promotional Examination

Exam Title: Payroll and Personnel Coordinator
Schenectady County Finance Department
The resulting eligible list will be used to fill vacancies as needed.

Exam Number: 78-431

Salary Range: $64,346 - $86,882 (2022)

Last Date for Filing: August 22, 2022

Date of Examination: October 1, 2022

Duties: This position is a management position within the Department of Finance charged with ensuring that the critical tasks of the Department's Payroll Division are performed accurately. The work involves responsibility for performing complex technical and supervisory work in the daily operation of Schenectady County's weekly payroll process including ensuring that data contained in the County's Payroll module are updated timely, payroll is processed accurately in accordance with collective bargaining agreements and addenda, and federal, state, and local rules and regulations. This position will coordinate updates and changes to personnel and payroll data to the Personnel Module of the County's Integrated Financial System ensuring that necessary internal control measures are being implemented and monitored. General supervision is received from the Deputy Commissioner of Finance (Finance Dept), with the expectation that the individual will exercise necessary and appropriate independent judgment in carrying out the work. Supervision may be exercised over support staff. The incumbent does related work as required.

Minimum Qualifications: (on the date of the written test)

Candidates must be permanently employed on a full-time continuous basis in the competitive class for at least twenty-four (24) months as a Personnel Technician in the Schenectady County Department of Finance.

Subjects of Examination: A written test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in the following areas:

Advising and interacting with others

OVER

These questions test for the ability to interact with other people in order to gather and present information and to provide assistance and advice in a courteous and professional manner.

Preparing written material

These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.

Understanding and interpreting tabular material

These questions test your ability to understand, analyze, and use the internal logic of data presented in tabular form. You may be asked to perform tasks such as completing tables, drawing conclusions from them, analyzing data trends or interrelationships, and revising or combining data sets. The concepts of rate, ratio, and proportion are tested. Mathematical operations are simple, and computational speed is not a major factor in the test. You should bring with you a hand-held battery- or solar-powered calculator for use on this test. You will not be permitted to use the calculator function of your cell phone.

Public personnel administration

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices used in applying New York State, federal, and local laws, rules, and policies to situations encountered in planning and executing the personnel functions in a government agency. Questions may cover such areas as recruitment, selection, and placement; position classification; performance evaluation; and employee relations.

Supervision

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.

Use of Calculators: It is recommended that calculators be used for this examination. Candidates are permitted to use quiet, hand-held solar or battery-powered calculators. Devices with typewriter keyboards, spell checkers, personal digital assistants, address books, language translators, dictionaries, or any similar devices are prohibited.

The New York State Department of Civil Service has not prepared a test guide for this examination. However, candidates may find information in the publication "How to Take a Written Test" helpful in preparing for this test. Candidates not having access to a computer or the internet may request a copy by contacting the Schenectady County Civil Service Department using the contact information given elsewhere on this announcement or the exam application.

Applying For Civil Service Examinations In Multiple Jurisdictions When Examinations
Are Scheduled On Same Date

If you have applied for any other civil service examinations to be given on the same test date for employment with New York State or any other Local Government Jurisdiction excluding New York City, you must make arrangements to take all the examinations at one test site.

If you have applied for both State and Local government examinations, you must notify our agency, Schenectady County Civil Service, of your intent to take both a state and a local government examination. When taking both a state and a local government examination you will be required to take all your examinations at a state examination center. You must complete a cross-filer form indicating what exams you have applied for and we will notify New York State Civil Service of your intent. You will be advised when and where to report for your examinations.

If you have applied for more than one Local Government Examination with more than one Local Civil Service Agency, you must notify each civil service agency to make arrangements. Schenectady County has a cross-filer form which you must complete. You must make your request for these arrangements no later than two weeks before the date of the examinations. On the cross-filer form you will indicate all exams you have signed up to take and the location you wish to be tested at. If you have questions regarding this examination call (518) 388-4233 or write to Schenectady County Civil Service Commission, 620 State Street, Schenectady, NY 12305.

Note: Employment within a Schenectady County Department may be subject to pre-employment drug testing.

You are encouraged to read the General Conditions and Instructions Attachment.

 11. Examination Preparation and Rating. This written examination is being prepared and rated by the New York State Department of Civil Service in accordance with Section 23-2 of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the New York State Civil Service Rules and Regulations dealing with the rating of examinations will apply to this written examination.
 12. Eligible List. The minimum qualifications listed in this announcement have been approved by the Schenectady County Civil Service Commission for the purpose of evaluating a candidate's education, training and experience to determine admission to this examination. This examination is being conducted to establish a Civil Service Eligible List which will be certified to appointing authorities to fill available vacancies. Candidates whose names are certified for appointment have only met the minimum qualifications to take the examination. All candidates who pass the examination will be placed on an eligible list. Unless otherwise specified, the final rank order of the eligible list will be determined on the basis of the scores received on the written test, plus Veterans Credits and Seniority Credits where appropriate. The eligible list established as a result of this examination will be established for four years, but may expire after one year if superseded by a new list.
 13. Application Verification and Background Checks – Statements made on the Examination Application are subject to verification. A clearance from the Commissioner of Education will be required for employment within a school district for those positions that are designated by the school district as having direct contact with students.
 14. Persons holding a permanent position in this title, in this department are not eligible for admittance to this examination.

15. Veterans Credits. The following information and instructions pertain to those candidates who are claiming Veterans Credits. Please note that Veterans Credits will not be granted after the establishment of the eligible list.
- If you are claiming Veterans Credits as either a disabled or non-disabled veteran, you must check the appropriate box on the Application for Examination form and answer all questions accurately and completely. You must also complete the Application for Veterans Credits (obtained in the Schenectady County Civil Service Office or on the Civil Service Department website at www.schenectadycounty.com), and submit the DD-214 Discharge Papers showing that you have an honorable discharge. Failure to do so may result in a denial of your claim for Veterans Credits.
 - If you are claiming credits as a disabled veteran, you must in addition to meeting the requirements as indicated on the Examination Application, be certified by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs as being disabled in the actual performance of duty in any war; that the disability is rated at ten percent or more, and that the disability exists at the time of application for appointment or promotion.
 - All claims for Veterans Credits are tentative and must be verified through inspection of discharge papers and related documents prior to the establishment of the eligible list. All statements you make in support of your claim for Veterans Credits are subject to investigation and substantiation by the Schenectady County Civil Service Commission. In the event of subsequent disclosure of any material misstatement or fraud in your claim, your appointment may be rescinded and you may be disqualified from further appointment on which you have been granted additional credits as a result of such material misstatement or fraud.
 - Any candidate who is currently serving in the armed forces of the United States on a full-time active duty basis, other than active duty for training, may file for Veterans Credits on an examination prior to the list being established.
 - Conditional Veterans Credits. A qualified candidate receiving Conditional Veterans Credits will be restricted from certification using the credits until the appropriate documentary proof indicating that the service was in time of war and that the individual received an honorable discharge or was released under honorable circumstances has been presented. It is the candidate's responsibility to provide such proof to the Schenectady County Civil Service Office in order to have the restriction removed and be certified at a score including the Veterans Credits. Until such documentation is submitted, a candidate may only be certified with the examination score, not including the Veterans Credits.
 - Additional Veterans Credits. Effective January 1, 2014, additional Veterans Credits may be granted to veterans who:
 1. Used Non-Disabled Veterans Credits to obtain a civil service appointment or promotion with New York State or a local government; and
 2. Subsequent to such appointment, are certified by the US Department of Veterans Affairs as having a service connected disability rated at 10% or more.

16. Seniority Credits (Promotional Exams Only). Seniority Credits will be added to an eligible score based on continuous permanent competitive class service in the jurisdiction holding the examination. Service would be credited up to and including the date of examination as follows:

No. of Years	Credits	No. of Years	Credits	No. of Years	Credits
Less than 1 year	0	6 to 10 years	2	16 to 20 years	4
1 to 5 years	1	11 to 15 years	3	21 to 25 years	5

Each additional 5 years will be credited 1 point in accordance with the above schedule.

17. Additional Credits for Eligible Children or Siblings of Firefighters and Police Officers Killed in the Line of Duty. If you are either a child or sibling of Firefighter or Police Officer killed in the line of duty as defined in Civil Service Law Sections 85-a or b (see below), you may be entitled to receive an additional ten points in a competitive examination for original appointment in the same municipality in which the deceased firefighter or police officer had served. A candidate claiming such credit has a minimum of two months from the application deadline to provide the necessary documentation to verify additional credit eligibility. However, no credit may be added after the eligible list has been established. You must contact this office regarding these credits upon submission or your application for examination.

- Civil Service Law Section 85-a. Children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty are eligible for these additional credits.
- Civil Service Law Section 85-b. Siblings of Firefighters and Police Officers killed in line of duty (World Trade Center, September 11, 2001) are eligible for these additional credits. Pursuant to CSL §85-b, “killed in the line of duty” shall mean having died in the performance of duty as the natural and proximate results of participation in the rescue effort that was conducted in response to such attack.
